Little Rosing and Jennie Levy, 58 Cath-erine street and 46 Pike street Baby Walter, New York City The Sick Bables' Fund physicians have been kept very busy during the hot spell. There are thousands of alling little ones, and in the tenements many children are sick. The fund physicians carry cheer and relief into every home they visit. Many infant lives are saved these days through their free ministrations

Contributions to the Sick Babies' Fund should be sent to Cashler of World, Pulitzer Building, New York

LITTLE CONTRIBUTIONS.

Money Received for the Sick Babies' Fund. To the Editor of The Evening World:

inclosed find $10, the result of a children's fair held on Monday and Tues-day evenings, July 30 and 31, at Webeter avenue and Third street, Parkville, Borough of Brooklyn. Lilly and Minnie Temple, with the assistance of Nellie Smith and Jennie Strabach, worked hard to make it a success, and had the weather been fine on cess, and had the weather been line on Monday there is no doubt that the amount realized would have been larger. Great expeit is due to Lilly and Minnie Temple (twin sisters), aged fourteen, for the way in which they managed everything. The amount this year is better than they sent you last year. CHAS. E. SCHONBERG.

Inclosed find check for $7, the proceeds of a sale of famey work and candy we members of the Clover Club gave for the sick babies. Jessie Gregg. Florence Cooke.

Inclosed find fl.30, proceeds of a lemonade stand in front of our door by the following little girls:

Mary Rocheford, 247 Bainbridge street.

Bessie Doyle, 249 Bainbridge street.

Moille McCauley, 252A Bainbridge street.

Agnes Moran, 253 Bainbridge street.

Inclosed please find $2.70, proceeds of a little girls' club, called the "Little Daughters of Liberty," consisting of Alice Du Bois, aged tweive, of 47 Shepherd avenue; Alice Testut, age twelve, of 39 Shepherd avenue; Marjorie Pierce, age twelve, of 48 Shepherd avenue; Annie Wilson, age twelve, of 35 Shepherd avenue; Cora Sanford, age thitteen, corner Shepherd and Jamalea avenues; Grace Sanford, age eight, corner Shepherd and Jamalea avenues; Estelle Holmes, age thirteen, of 46 Essex street; Alma Pierce, age eleven, of 48 Shepherd avenue.

Inclosed find $1.35, proceeds of a stand at 150 East local street, city. Hoping it will relieve some suffering tots, we are, Jessie Bernstein, Stella Bernstein.

Inclosed find 50 cents which I hope will resorts.

Charles Hopkins, who lived on the same floor, attempted to ext nguish the flames, but found it impossible. He then threw the stove out of the window to the yard below.

In the mean time the flames had caught the woodwork in the room, and in a second the entire floor was ablaze. The flames shot up the stairway, cutting off all escape for the families on he floor above. In the front rooms were Mrs. Mary Anderson and two small children. The latter were asleep. Mrs. Anderson ran to the stairway and was driven back y the flames.

Rushing into her bedroom she grabbed her two children and ran to the front window. By this time Hook and Ladder No. 51 had arrived and a ladder was raised. it fell short about five feet. Fireman Patrick Harrigan, of the Hook and Ladder Company, ran up the iadder, followed by four of his com-panions. By standing on the shoulders of Fireman Richard J. Trapp, Harrigan succeeded in grasping the two chil-

Passing the children down to his companions, Harrigan then seized Mrs. Anderson. He got her down safely. He passed her to Trapp, who in turn handed her to Louis Blair, then to Michael Manning and Peter O'Nelli. While the firemen were making these rescues in front another fireman, John Burns, saved Neille Oates from a rear window on the top floor.

How to Prevent Consumption.

Every physician will tell you that this disease is caused by germ life called the Koch bacilli, which causes the lungs to decay. This germ life was first discovered by Prof. Koch. and can be killed by the Koch tub -culine, a medicine also discovered by Dr. Koch, of Berlin.
